Title:

Workshop on Ordinance 2012-07
Conditional Use (CU) stipulations for Farm Worker Housing

The City's Zoning ordinance permits farm labor camps only within the RM-6 zoning district as a CU in the RM-6 zoning district but does not contain any standards or criteria by which to consider these uses. Ordinance 2012-07 provides Conditional Use standards for farm worker housing and rooming/boardng houses in the RM-5 and RM-6 zoning districts. The Code permits duplexes in RM-5 and apartments in RM-6. RM-5 is being added because many existing farm worker housing units are duplexes which would be nonconforming in the RM-6 district. The ordinance allows existing farm worker housing that are not within the RM-5 or RM-6 zoning districts to apply for a CU within a timeframe - 90 days. Upon approval, these facilities would be legal non-conforming since the Code does not allow such facilities in districts other than RM-5 and RM-6. If the application for CU is not made or denied, these uses shall be subject to Code Enforcement in accordance with the Code. The ordinance requires CPTED review by the Police Department, provision of contact information for the property owner and manager and a site plan. It does not include the gateway buffer areas. However, a gateway ordinance will be forthcoming.

BACKGROUND

The City Commission held several workshops to discuss Ordinance 2011-33 on conditional use stipulations for farm labor camps - October 3 and 17 and November 7, 2011. Ordinance 2011-33 proposed 200 foot gateway buffers along 10th Street and 8th Avenue and the area south of 4th Street to the Manatee River. It required CPTED review, the provision of contact information for the owner and property manager and a follow up operational inspection by Code Enforcement. At the Planning and Zoning Board meeting on 12/15/2011, the Board requested that individual notices be sent to property owners of RM-6 zoned parcels within the proposed gateways. Notices were mailed out on 1/5/12 and the P&Z held its public hearing on January 19, 2012 which was continued at the recommendation of Council to give City staff an opportunity to meet with the farming industry and anyone else impacted, to review their issues and concerns. During the past three months, the mayor and City staff held numerous meetings with the agricultural community. They recommended that "farm labor camps" be changed to "farm worker housing".

On April 2 2012, Council recommended that Ordinance 2011-33 be withdrawn as it had become apparent that the forthcoming ordinance needed to be re-advertised.
